

ABOUT BRESSI.

Detailed Account of Antecedents of King Humbert's Murderer.

NATURALLY AN ANARCHIST.

Born Thirty-one Years Ago Near Prato—Was of a Restless, Roving Disposition—Applied For a Permit to Carry Arms—His Brother, a Lieutenant in the Italian Army.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The World's correspondent at Florence, Italy, yesterday made a trip to Prato where he obtained a detailed account of the antecedents of Gaetano Bressi, the assassin of King Humbert and of his movements prior to the assassination.

Gaetano Bressi was born November 10, 1869, in Colano, a mile from Prato, a manufacturing town of 15,000 inhabitants beautifully situated fifteen miles north of Florence. He began work as a shoemaker, but studied in a technical school at Prato for a time and thus became a weaver, which avocation he followed for eight years at Fabrocone's large factory in Prato.

After a strike in 1892, he left Prato and went to work in Unni's factories at Florence. A year later he returned to Prato, where he was employed in Zelon's mill.

He must have been of a restless, roving disposition, for he left Prato again for Lucca on January 22, 1898, and sailed from Genoa for New York on February 20, of the same year.

Bressi returned to Prato on June 4 last, and about that time the Italian consul in New York advised the authorities in Italy that Bressi had interested himself in anarchist newspapers published at Paterson, N. J., edited by Ciancabelli and Malatesta, revolutionary Italians.

Bressi traveled from New York via Paris, and on June 14, applied to the municipal authorities of Prato for a birth certificate, that he might secure a permit to carry arms. This was refused because of his character and past offenses, which he had committed against the municipality.

On June 16, he secured a passport for New York, describing himself as a shoemaker. Early in July he went to Castel San Pietro to visit two of his young nieces.

On the evening of July 12, he took the train for Milan via Bologna.

Assassin Tall and Slender.

Bressi is tall and slender, with an olive complexion, dark eyes and a slight mustache. His mother died in February, 1891, and his father in 1895. The assassin has two brothers, one, Lorenzo, a shoemaker at Oofano, thirteen years older than himself, and the other, Angiolino, for whom the murderer appears to have been at first mistaken. Angiolino is eight years older than the assassin and is a lieutenant of artillery stationed at Caserta.

Lorenzo Bressi, interviewed at Colano by the World's correspondent, said: "I knew of Gaetano's anarchist opinions, but never attached any importance to them. I always thought him a quiet, good-natured fellow, though unsatisfied."

"For my part I curse the anarchists, my opinion being that for workmen like us the chance to eat, drink and work should be enough. I don't think much about politics, Gaetano, who was always interested in such matters, was quite peculiar in our family in that respect."

The police to-day visited Lorenzo's house and took charge of the murderer's belongings, including a target at which he practiced with a revolver.

ITALIAN COLONY

In New York Trying to Ferret Out the Anarchists—Think Humbert's Assassination Was Plotted in This Country.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The leaders of the Italian colony which has settled on the shores of New York harbor, are taking steps to ferret out and bring to justice those anarchists who they believe are directly or indirectly responsible for the killing of King Humbert.

The present feeling of the Italian leaders is best expressed by a statement made by F. P. Cambria, president of the United Italian Societies of this city.

Contagious Blood Poison

There is no poison so highly contagious, so deceptive and so destructive. Don't be too sure you are cured because all external signs of the disease have disappeared, and the doctor says you are well. Many persons have been dosed with Mercury and Potash for months or years, and pronounced cured—to realize when too late that the disease was only covered up—Liko Bogots Liko, driven from the face to break out again, and to their sorrow and mortification find those nearest and dearest to them have been infected by this loathsome disease, for no other poison is so surely transmitted from parent to child as this. Often a bad case of Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula or severe skin disease, an old sore or ulcer developing in middle life, can be traced to blood poison contracted in early Thio Sin of the Parent, life, for it remains smoldering in the system forever, unless properly treated and driven out in the beginning. S. S. S. is the only antidote for this peculiar virus, the only remedy known that can overcome it and drive it out of the blood, and it does this so thoroughly and effectually that there is never a return of the disease to embarrass or humiliate you afterwards, cures Contagious Blood Poison in any and all stages; contains no mineral to break down your constitution; it is purely vegetable and the only blood purifier known that cleanses the blood and at the same time builds up the general health.

Our little book on contagious blood poison is the most complete and instructive ever issued; it not only tells all about this disease, but also how to cure yourself at home. It is free and should be in the hands of everyone seeking a cure. Send for it.

dent of the United Italian Societies of this city.

Signor Cambria said: "There is no doubt in my mind that the assassination of King Humbert was plotted here. By that I mean not only in the Italian colony in this city, but in the great settlement of our people around New York harbor. What makes me think more than anything else that the anarchists among us are organized and have chosen men from among themselves to put their murderous plans into execution was an anarchistic invader which I discovered to-day. It was only one of thousands of such circulars which are being thrown about broadcast among our people."

Printed by Incendiary Organ.

"It was printed on the press of an incendiary organ of the anarchists in Hoboken, the editor of which is said to have been an intimate friend of Bressi. The circular first assailed the Italian newspapers which have mourned the death of the king. It railed against any sentiment of sorrow and ridiculed all show of sympathy. Lastly, it openly denounced the dead king, rejoiced in his taking off, and named his assassin a hero."

"It will accordingly be our purpose to purge our settlement of such an element as is represented by this circular. It will be our first step to appeal to the police for their help and, failing in getting it, we will take the matter into our own hands."

Mass Meeting of Italians.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—There is to be a general mass meeting of the Italians of this city to publicly express their sentiment regarding the assassination of King Humbert. Funeral ceremonies will probably be conducted here simultaneously with those celebrating the last rites over the dead sovereign in Rome.

It is the intention to fire a salute of 101 guns, the state salute on the occasion of the death of a king of Italy. Business places conducted by Italians throughout the city will be closed.

Bressi's Wife Destitute.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Captain Usher, of the Hoboken police, said to-day that Mrs. Bressi, wife of the assassin of King Humbert, was in such a nervous condition that she had gone to the house of a friend for rest. The woman is destitute. She still tries to hope that the man arrested in Italy is not her husband, but she admits that there is little reason for her hope. She will be kept under police surveillance, pending developments in her husband's case.

Government Will Investigate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 1.—The possible connection between Bressi, the Italian murderer of King Humbert and the New Jersey group of anarchists has moved this government to take measures to investigate the anarchist situation in and around New York. Just what steps have been taken is not made public.

King Arrives at Rome.

ROME, Aug. 1.—King Victor Emmanuel III, and Queen Helena arrived here early this morning and proceeded for Montecitorio, where they will arrive this evening. The ministers met their majesties at the railway station.

NINTH INFANTRY MORTALITY

Due to Severe Service in China Says General Sternberg.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Surgeon General Sternberg says that the largest list of the Ninth Infantry reported by Colonel Daggett is probably due to severe service and exposure, together with the change of climate and water, which may be bad. The surgeon general says that such illness would not be unusual under the circumstances. He does not believe there is anything like an epidemic as in that case special mention would have been made by the officers in charge.

Peace Agency to be Established.

PARIS, Aug. 1.—The International peace and arbitration conference to-day adopted a proposition for the establishment in connection with the peace bureau at Berne, of an international press service to be known as the peace agency, whose duty will be the daily publication of a bulletin showing the advancement in the interests of peace. It will be furnished free to all the papers of Europe. Funds will be raised by subscription to carry out the plan.

Sued for Purling a Play.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—T. Daniel Frawley, the theatrical manager, was made the defendant in a suit for damages. The Doris Amusement Company and Louisa Harrison, of New York, charge him with playing their comedy, "In Paradise," without authority and they demand $9,000 as royalty, and also ask for an injunction to prevent him from using the play.

Ridpath's Funeral.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The body of John Clark Ridpath, the historian, who died in the Presbyterian hospital last night, after a lingering illness, will be taken to Green Castle, Ind., the historian's late home, where funeral services will be held. There will be no funeral services in this city.

Russian Finn Stabbed.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 1.—A Russian Finn named Curtland, was probably fatally beaten and stabbed by Japanese fishermen on the Fraser river last night. Curtland is a fisherman and started the row by swearing at the Japanese for breaking up the union meeting.

Thio Sin of the Parent.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Mrs. Wu, wife of the Chinese minister here, left this evening for Cape May, N. J. She was accompanied by her son, Chao Chu. The party will be gone about a week. Minister Wu will remain in Washington.

AGONY!

Pain so acute as to amount to positive agony is a part of rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago, sciatica, gout and other diseases for which TONGALINE is the specific remedy.

Too often morphine is given to quiet this pain and to save the nervous system from wreck. But morphine would never cure the disease. External application of lotions and liniments are equally ineffective for permanent cure.

In TONGALINE we have an anodyne more helpful and far safer than morphine, combined with eliminating ingredients which cure the disease permanently.
